The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.

Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 21.

From the Virginia Gazette and General Advertiser.

We quote the following strange paragraphs from Callender's Examiner of Friday last, and which we should not have noticed, had the writer of them so far divisted himself of prejudice, as not illiberally to have wished to "drag" forth the innocent with the guilty.—

"The treatment which Mr. Duane has received, first and last, from the ministerial myrmidons in Philadelphia, surpasses all description, and credibility. In the course of last winter, he was knocked down upon a Sunday, when at a Roman Catholic Chapel. He was then dragged before that little contemptible duodecimo despot KEARNEY WHARTON, the present mayor of Philadelphia. He was bound over in the enormous sum of Four Thousand Dollars, to stand trial for having committed a riot.

"Upon the trial, not one witness could be adduced whose evidence went to criminate him even circumstantially; so that, as his counsellor Mr. Dallas, observed to the court, it was absolutely useless to make any defence for Mr. Duane, because from the evidence, it did not appear that he was at the Chapel.

"This is the present state of public justice in the city of Philadelphia."

[To shew how much at random the author of the above has written, it might only be necessary to say, that the Mayor of Philadelphia bears the name of ROBERT WHARTON, that he is a man of amiable manners and fine person; that there is nothing little about him, unless it is his littleness of respect for public offenders and vagabonds.

That Robert Wharton is a tyrant to the wicked, to the licentious, and to the worthless and indolent is a fact—That he is more vigilant in discharging proper duties towards such characters, than his predecessor or any other individual; that he hunts down vice with vigilance and activity; are facts which his friends are proud to admit, and himself to own. And in as much as scoundrels and vagabonds either there or elsewhere, detest such characters—so will they in being opposed by him, call him tyrant, but unless from from such sources; who is there who knows this very excellent man and meritorious magistrate, who will brand him with a name so detestable?

In the years 1797 and 1798, Mr. Wharton remained in Philadelphia during the raging of the fever. He was infected and recovered: his fortune enabled him to withdraw and seek shelter elsewhere, but with a spirit truly laudable he remained, and there is not one candid man in the city who will not own that the tranquility of the city, and necessary assistance to the distressed, proceeded very much from him. It was not until after the return of the inhabitants last fall, that he was by their unanimous voice called on to discharge the honorable and important duty of mayor.

It will not be urged that the superior vigilance of this much respected magistrate, has preserved the city from the yellow fever during this season: we only remark that the city is preserved, and that Mr. Wharton continues to deserve and enjoy the undiminished confidence and esteem of all whose esteem is worth having.

To enumerate the many remarkable incidents which establish the worth and value of Mr. Wharton's character, would be to write the history of his life:—Let it suffice to say, that when he was called to discharge the duty of mayor, he was the captain of a troop of cavalry, composed of the most wealthy and respectable citizens of Philadelphia; and such was, and such is the attachment of the troop to him, that when his office of mayor was incompatible with the commission of captain; when, therefore, he resigned the commission, the troop unanimously agreed that they would not elect another captain: So that whenever it might be convenient for Mr. Wharton, to be among them, they might pay him the honors of their commander.—Does a fact like this bespeak the tyrant? When, during the yellow fever of 1798, the criminals in confinement resolved and were prepared to force the doors—when the same criminals would have been joined by men of a like description who were in the city—when this united banditti were ready to spread over that rich city with desolation and fire—when fear and dismay had almost paved the way for their success—Mr. Wharton voluntarily opposed this torrent of destruction, and aided by three or four persons only, he quelled the rioters, by killing the ringleaders. This is an act of public notoriety in Philadelphia, an act for which he has received every public mark of approbation, and the best and most honorable gift of the citizens.

Such is Robert Wharton, the Mayor of Philadelphia, the man who has been publicly announced as a little duodecimo tyrant.

From the New-York Gazette and General Advertiser.

MR. LANG,

AS I conceive the publication in your paper of the 16 inst. signed MANY, is solely directed to me, I beg the favour of you to publish the following Answer.

IT is at all times my wish to give the public every information in my power on such important circumstances as the present, although at the same time I believed myself perfectly inadequate to the task, not having charged my mind with those particulars necessary to be related, in answer to the enquiries therein stated.

After captain John Seaman's coming up to the city with the ship General Wayne from Staten Island, where she had been performing quarantine for 22 days after her arrival from the Havannah, he frequently declared to me, and others, that if the ship was unhealthy on her arrival at Staten Island, she was much more so when she came up to the city. The reason he gave was, that the cargo which she brought home still remained on board without removal while she was performing quarantine; and that the foul air (if any was generated in her hold in the course of the voyage) must be still more putrid from the length of confinement and increasing heat of the weather.

What capt. Seaman's real sentiments were with regard to the unhealthiness of the ship, I cannot pretend to say—but, for myself, I felt not the least apprehension from her, having frequently went into her hold and other places, which had nothing in the least offensive on board to me, and was as clean, if not cleaner, than any ship I had seen arrive at this port.

I do not recollect to have heard capt. Seaman declare, "before me, and many others, that he did not believe there was contagion on board the ship." but I well know what he said to the contrary, alarmed the neighbourhood where she lay to such a degree that they threatened to set fire to her if she was not removed from the wharf.

A few cases which happened about that part of the town, of a malignant kind, and terminated fatally, was attributed to her, although one or two died a fortnight or so before her arrival.—Among the number of deaths that happened while she lay at the wharf, was an old woman at Mr. Annely's the gun smith in Water-street. I do not know what kind of curiosity could have led this poor old woman out of her way so far as to visit the ship General Wayne, at a considerable distance from home.

A parcel of coffee imported from Surinam by me in the schooner Rain Deer, was landed on Ten Eyck's wharf, (where the ship General Wayne afterwards lay and unloaded) and sold by me to Messrs. Rutgers, Seaman and Ogden. The appearance of a shower of rain, induced them to apply to Mr. Peter A. Schenk for room in his store to put the coffee, until the weather would permit its removal. This very coffee, imported at an immense distance from the Havanna, must, by a most unaccountable circumstance have taken the fever from the General Wayne, and carried and given it to Mr. Schenk's clerk (for the ship is charged with the death of this Young Man, thro' the means of that Coffee) who immediately after took the fever and died. All these ridiculous reports against the ship which were shortly afterwards published, induced Capt. John Brazier, one of the owners, to enquire of Captain Seaman what were his motives in declaring publicly that the ship was so unhealthy? He answered that he had declared so to some people merely to get rid of their enquiries, and whom he did not care to satisfy.—I cannot declare precise as to the words of capt. Seaman on this point, tho' I believe the above to be of the same purport, and from the character of capt. Brazier, from whom I received my information, I cannot doubt the fact.

I shall conclude, by declaring, that I should not think myself justifiable in answering any anonymous publications whatever, directed to me, had I not sufficient reason to believe that Dr. Bailey was the author of the publication signed MANY, addressed to me—I am also well convinced that Dr. B. omitted nothing in his power that the law sanctioned him in, towards purifying and cleansing the ship, and that he detained her to the last hour he had it in his power.

I am, Sir, &c.

CHARLES WATKINS.

ELECTION.

At a numerous and respectable meeting of the Citizens of Philadelphia and the liberties thereof, held at Dunwoody's in the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday the 13*th inst. for the purpose of fixing upon a suitable person to fill the* IMPORTANT office of GOVERNOR of this State, the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That it is essential to the honor and the happiness of Pennsylvania, and highly important to the best interests of the United States, that, at the ensuing election of governor of this commonwealth, the suffrages of our fellow citizens should be given to a candidate who, combining the requisites of talents and integrity with temperance of character and independence of connexion, will ably and faithfully execute the trusts of that high station, who conciliating the particular interests of the state with the general interests of the United States, will cordially cultivate the necessary intercourse with the Federal Government; and who, having never avowed himself the partizan of foreign politics, will be at perfect liberty to pursue the exclusive advantage of his own country.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburg, unites, in an eminent degree, the requisites, expressed in the preceding resolution, to fill the high office of Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and that this meeting being justified in their opinion by the uniform tenor of his private and public conduct, will give him their best support at the ensuing election.

And whereas certain persons, who are desirous of imposing another candidate on the citizens of Pennsylvania, far from imitating the laudable example which had been given by the friends of Mr. Ross, of carefully abstaining from all illiberality of opinion, have attempted to aid their purpose by false and indecent insinuations that their opponents are influenced by unworthy motives, and as silence, under such censure, might be tortured into a concession of its truth:

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, that the corresponding committee heretofore appointed, be instructed to prepare an address to our fellow citizens throughout the state, on the subject of said election, wherein, if they shall deem it necessary or useful to defeat the projects of our antagonists, they shall be at liberty freely to examine and discuss the merits of the opposite candidate, and the pretensions of those persons, who thus presume to assign improper motives to the conduct of others; and that, unawed by official character, or by any other consideration, the individuals who compose this meeting will aid the examination and discussion, if they shall be resolved on, by supplying every necessary information, whether it shall tend to expose the inability or defects of the opposite candidate; or to illustrate and explain the characters of those individuals who style themselves his supporters, and who have thus dared, under their signatures, to impeach the integrity of their opponents.—And in adducing this information (Mr M'Kean's services as a judge being much relied on) it may be necessary to resort to the remonstrances of Juries, and the representations of the Bar, to expose his judicial tyranny and intolerance, or to the deliberate declarations of political wishes and opinions which, if realized, would subvert the liberty, the religion, and the social order of our country.

Or, in discussing the pretensions of those men who have thus falsely stigmatized their opponents, it may be necessary to recur to Proclamations which have proscribed some of them as TRAITORS—to examine dockets to have the most disgraceful allegations against others—to enquire into the equivocal circumstances which cloud the late coming of others of them to America, who, like birds of ill omen, have made their appearance among us since the revolution, and who now dare to question the motives of men who hazarded all that was dear to them in establishing the Independence of America. The committee are requested, if they are resolved to recriminate, to give to all the facts which they may state, such solemn sanction as will stamp conviction on the minds of whoever may peruse them.

ROBERT WHARTON. Chairman.

Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed to attend a meeting to be held at the county of Philadelphia, and a committee of three to attend a meeting to be held in the county of Delaware for the purpose of representing to the said meetings the determination of this meeting to support Joseph Ball, Esq as Senator, and to desire a co-operation on their part, when

Mr. Levy Hollingsworth, Mr. Henry Pratt, and John Hallowell, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Philadelphia, and

Mr. John Wall, Mr. Jesse Sharpless, and Michael Keppele, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Delaware.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the different German and English newspapers throughout the state, signed by the Chairman and countersigned by the Secretary.

(Signed) ROBERT WHARTON, Chairman.

Attest, JOHN EWING, Secretary.

DELAWARE COUNTY.

At a very numerous and respectable meeting of the Inhabitants of the County of Delaware, held at the Black-Horse Tavern, in the township of Middletown, the 17*th day of August,* 1799,

It was unanimously resolved,

That we will support JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, with our votes and interest at the ensuing election, as Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That in order to obtain this desireable object, a Committee, consisting of four or more persons, be appointed in each Township to assist in promoting his election.

Resolved, That the Committee of Correspondence of this County be requested to prepare and forward a Circular Letter to each Member of the Township Committees, earnestly desiring them to use their utmost exertions by all fair and honorable means to promote the election of James Ross of Pittsburgh to the office of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Mr. John Wall, Mr. Jesse Sharpless, and Michael Keppele, Esq. the Committee appointed by a meeting held at Dunwoody's in Philadelphia on the 13th instant, for the purpose of representing to this meeting their determination to support Joseph Ball as Senator, and to desire our co-operation therein were introduced to the Chairman, and having declared the purpose of their mission,

It was unanimously resolved,

That we will support, at the ensuing election, by our interest and votes, JOSEPH BALL as a Senator of this state, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Benjamin R. Morgan, Esq.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the Philadelphia Newspapers.

HUGH LLOYD, Chairman.
BENJAMIN H. SMITH, Secretary.

At a respectable meeting of a large number of the inhabitants of Germantown, Roxborough, and Bristol, in the county of Philadelphia, held at Riter's tavern, in Germantown, on Thursday the 15*th inst.*

Col. THOMAS DUNGAN was appointed chairman, and CHARLES W. HARE, Secretary.

It was resolved, that a committee be appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, on the subject of the ensuing election for Governor.

The committee accordingly reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.—

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Governor of this Commonwealth, is invested, not only with the Executive powers of Government, but with the high privilege of controuling in an important degree, the proceedings of the Legislature; with dispensing the principal offices of the State; with rescuing criminals out of the hands of Justice, by pardoning their offences; and with the command of the military power of the Commonwealth: it is therefore essential to the prosperity, peace, order and happiness of the people of Pennsylvania, that the person holding this important station, should be eminent for his republican principles, wisdom, activity, firmness, moderation, and temperance.

Resolved, That at the present period, when a war is carried on by a foreign nation, not only against the lives and properties, but the religion and governments, of their opponents; and when the United States, by the aggressions of that nation, are in danger of being involved in this destructive warfare; it is peculiarly important that the Chief Magistrate of Pennsylvania, should be a person, whose mind is not shackled with partiality for foreign principles and politics, whose dispassionate and cautious temper, may secure us from any dangerous or indiscreet exercise of power, and whose vigor and resolution may render his efforts as efficient as possible, if war should prove unavoidable.

Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting, the various qualifications necessary to the execution of this high and important office, are united in JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburgh; whose virtues and talents placed him at an early period of life, in the councils of this State and the United States; in which arduous stations his wisdom, eloquence, activity, firmness and moderation, have been eminently useful to his country, and honorable to himself.

Resolved, That the members of this meeting, will therefore, at and before the time of the ensuing general election, use all honorable efforts to promote the election of Mr. Ross, to be Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That the following persons be appointed to act as committees in their respective townships; whose office it shall be to correspond with the other similar committees, and in concurrence with them, to use all proper means for promoting the election of Mr. Ross.—Viz.

For Germantown Township.

Charles M'Enett, John Fromberger,
Capt, Wm. Lesher, Henry Sweyer,
Charles Nice.

For Bristol Township.

Geo. Benneville, Robt. Morris,
Capt. Henry Young.

For Roxborough Township.

David Davis Enoch Rittenhouse,
Peter Robinson.

Resolved, That this meeting will support JOSEPH BALL Esq. as Senator to represent the city and county of Philadelphia and county of Delaware, in the ensuing General Assembly.

Resolved, That the citizens of the county of Philadelphia, friends to the election of JAMES ROSS, Esq. as Governor of this Commonwealth, be requested to meet on Monday the 2d of September, at the Widow Lesher's, in Germantown, in order to nominate proper persons to fill the several elective offices which will become vacant at the next general election.

Resolved, That the corresponding committee be instructed to cause the proceedings of this meeting to be published in handbills, and distributed among their fellow citizens.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be signed by the chairman, and countersigned by the secretary; and that they be published in the English and German newspapers.

THOMAS DUNGAN, chairman.
CHARLES W. HARE, sec'ry.

At a numerous and respectable meeting of the freemen of the townships of Oxford, Lower Dublin, Byberry and manor of Moreland, held the 10th inst. at the house of John Sagar, in Bustleton, for the purpose of fixing on a suitable character to be run for governor at the ensuing election;—

The meeting having taken into consideration the genuine republican principles of James Ross, Esq. of Pittsburgh; his warm attachment to our Constitution, and known impartiality respecting all foreign Governments;

Resolved unanimously, That they will, by all fair and candid means in their power, support him with their votes and interests for the office of chief magistrate.

Resolved, that in order to assist in promoting this desireable object, a committee, consisting of two persons from each township, be appointed in this district to correspond with other committees already appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That Messrs. Frederick Caster, John M'Clellan, Thomas Paul, William Lardner, Joshua Comely, Edward Duffield, jun. Benjamin Walmsly, and Evan Townsend, be a committee agreeable to the foregoing resolve.

THOMAS HOLME, Chairman.
Lower Dublin, Aug. 12, '99.

Those Citizens of Delaware County, who are desirous that JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, should succeed the present Governor, are requested to meet at the Black Horse, in the township of Middletown, on the 17th day of Aug. next at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in order to consult on measures to promote his election.

HUGH LLOYD, Chairman,
of the Corresponding Committee of
Delaware county.

Aug. 6

THE Grand Jury for the County of Delaware, at July Sessions 1799, impressed with the importance of selecting a suitable character to succeed the present Governor, at the ensuing Election, whose attachment to the Constitution and Government of the United States, would be likely to insure a just, impartial and decisive administration, and having full confidence in the integrity, patriotism and talents of JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburgh, do therefore unanimously recommend him to the suffrages of our fellow Citizens of Delaware county.

A number of citizens would take it as a favor if the Health Committee in this city would favor the public with an exact ſtatement, as far as they know, concerning the malignant fever at preſent ſaid to exiſt amongſt us.

As yet we know but little, only from common report; and often what we have from this ſource proves upon examination to be erroneous. Many exaggerated reports are circulating in the country, ſtating matters to be worſe than th y really are; ſuch reports will have a much worſe tendency in deterring country people from coming in with produce, ſo abſolutely neceſſary to ſupply our markets, than an impartial ſtatement of facts iſſued officially by the board of health, to which, no doubt, credit would generally be given, both in city and country. This would have another good effect: If there be danger, then both citizens and country people would be warned of it and conduct themſelves accordingly, as they would then be informed of the particular ſpot where danger may be apprehended; and if there be no danger, they ought alſo to be informed of this. Such a meaſure would have a tendency to check the influence of falſe reports. R R.

HARTFORD, Auguſt 19.

As conſiderable alarm has ſpread through the neighboring towns, in conſequence of the ſickneſs and death, of ſeveral perſons in this city, we think it expedient to publiſh the following ſtatement, for the truth of which, we pledge ourſelves to the public.

Since the 11th inſtant, four perſons have died of a malignant Fever. The firſt, Mr. Reuben Judd, died on Monday—Mr. Timothy Burr, on Thurſday morning—Mr. Samuel Horton, on Thurſay evening, and Mr. Jerimiah Coock, ſon of Mr. James Coock, on Saturday. There are now (Sunday Auguſt 18th, 1 o'clock P. M. five perſons ſick with the ſame diſtemper, viz. Mr. William Fly, Mr. Simon Colton, Mr.——Munn, a boatman belonging to Maſſachuſetts, a child of capt. Joſeph Day, and a young woman, whoſe name we do not know. Mr. Colton is conſidered as the moſt dangerous; the others there are ſtrong hopes will recover. There have been but two caſes ſince Tueſday laſt. Several people have felt unwell, but no other inſtance of the fever has happened that we have been able to learn. There appears yet no ſatisfactory general ſource from which the ſickneſs might have been derived. Meaſures are taking as far as poſſible to trace out the real facts, in every inſtance, that ſome judgment may be formed, whether the fever originated here, or whether it was imported. One remark we will make. The ſeaſon hitherto has been as healthy as perhaps was ever known; and we think ſo fine a ſeaſon can ſcarcely be remembred. Every inſtance of the ſickneſs, that has taken place, except two, has been either upon Front-ſtreet, or between that ſtreet, and Connecticut River. Front-ſtreet runs from the little river about twenty rods eaſt from Col. Seymour's northward to the upper part of the town, between which, and Connecticut River, lies the low land, which is flowed in the ſpring.

The deaths mentioned above are all that have happened in this City ſince our laſt, excepting a Negro woman, who died of a Conſumption.

BALTIMORE, Auguſt 19.

Arrived this day,

Schooner Fox, captain Andrews, 19 days from St. Thomas. Left there the brigs David Stewart, captain Jones, and Fair Columbian, captain Mallony, of Baltimore, both to ſail in five or ſix days.

It gives us great pleaſure to hear that the Potowmac Company, at a late meeting of the ſtockholders, have determined to purſue with ſpirit the works commenced on that river, until they are completed. The influence which the rendering navigable that valuable water and its tributary ſtreams, will have on the population of the weſtern country; on the commerce, increaſe and wealth of the city of Waſhington, are incalculable. A ſimilar ſpirit of enterprize on the Suſquehannah, could not fail to produce the ſame beneficial effects to the country adjacent to its waters, and on the grand mart of all its produce, the flouriſhing city of Baltimore.

TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the exact of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR

By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America —— This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

A T a meeting of the visitors and governors of St. John's college in the State of Maryland, on the 13th day of July 1799,

Resolved, That on the first day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Professor of English and Grammar, who shall receive, for his services, at the rate of £100 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c,

Test, A. C. HANSON.

N. B. The office aforesaid hath just become vacant, by the resignation of a gentleman, whose affairs require, the immediate undertaking of a voyage by sea.

It is the duty of the said Professor (to whom is allowed an assistant) to teach the English language grammatically, and to prepare students for a superior school, by teaching them the Latin grammar, the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his scholars at stated hours; and to those students who are not destined for the superior school, are to be taught, at the discretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of science usually taught in English schools—A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is considered indispensible in the professor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will submit to an examination, as well as produce satisfactory testimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requested to insert in their papers the foregoing resolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.

WHEREAS,

AN attachment was lately issued out of the inferior court of common pleas of the county of Essex, in the state of New Jersey, directed to the sheriff of the said county, against the rights, credits, monies and effects, goods and chattles, lands and tenements of John Cleves Symmes at the suit of William Wells, in a plea of trespass on the case to his damage three thousand dollars;—

And whereas, the said sheriff did, at the term of June last past, return to the said court that he had attached the defendant by a certain bond given by Matthias Denman and Samuel Meeker to the said defendant, to the amount of near two thousand dollars, and also by sixty land warrants;—

Now therefore, unless the said John Cleves Symmes shall appear, give special bail, and receive a declaration at the suit of the plaintiff, judgment will be entered against him, and his property herein attached, will be sold agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided.
